Diana Ruschhaupt

Board Member

Diana Ruschhaupt has served on the Chapter Board for eight years.

An Indianapolis native, Ruschhaupt graduated from Indiana University with a BS as well as an MS in health education. She is currently a health educator at the Ruth Lilly Health Education Center. The National Association of Health Education Center awarded her with its Outstanding Health Educator of the Year award in 2006.

Ruschhaupt's commitment to the cause began in college as a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Through the years, the AOII Foundation has supported critical arthritis research and efforts to educate AOII members about arthritis. Ruschhaupt is now a member of the AOII Alumni Chapter in Indianapolis.

Ruschhaupt's favorite Arthritis Foundation event is the Arthritis Walk because, "everyone can participate!"

In her spare time, Ruschhaupt enjoys spending time with her husband Tim and their two boys Jacob and Will.
